

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

JUL 2 1954

REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

AUTHORITY TO APPOINT SPECIAL POLICEMEN

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Assistant Administrator of the General Services Administration on 12 May 1954 to appoint not to exceed twenty special policemen, I hereby redelegate to the Chief, Physical Security Branch, Security Office, the authority to appoint not to exceed twenty special policemen to police buildings and grounds occupied in the District of Columbia by the Central Intelligence Agency. Such authority is to be exercised only to protect Agency employees, property and classified documents and material, or in the event of fire or enemy attack.
